Surveys conducted at child care centers and shopping center entry points. Children estimated as 4 years old and younger included in the sample. Total sample size = 13,842. Average estimate across cities of total restraint use is 87.2%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.
Texas 2015 Nighttime Safety Belt Use by City

- Use is for driver and front seat outboard passenger combined. Total sample size = 25,894 occupants. Average estimate across cities of total nighttime restraint use is 85.2%. Drivers were seat belted at a rate of 85.1% and passengers at a rate of 85.6%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.
School-Age Occupant Protection in 18 Texas Cities

Surveys conducted in or near school zones in 4 areas (8 schools) in each city, with a quota sample of a minimum of 500 vehicles/city. Total 2015 sample size = 11,514. Children estimated as 5-16 years old included in the sample. Average percent use across all cities = 63.8%.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.
Texas 2015 Safety Belt Use by City

Use is for driver and front seat outboard passenger combined. Total sample size = 26,862 occupants in 21,600 vehicles (1,200 vehicles per city). Average estimate across cities of total restraint use is 90.2%. Drivers were seat belted at a rate of 90.8% and passengers at a rate of 87.6 percent.

For more information, contact Katie Womack, kwomack@tamu.edu.